New York—WASHINGTON—Paris.

Friday, November the Thirtieth, Will be Our Last Remnant Day Until After Christmas.

It will be the most interesting of the present season. We shall be too busy after this week to give our attention to remnants. And as every foot of shelf and counter and floor space is needed for the proper display of our magnificent stock of Gift Goods, which already surpasses anything heretofore attempted, we are going to clear out all the small and incomplete lots and tarrying fall things to start the new month with fresh, clean and unbroken stocks. To this end we have thoroughly ransacked every department in the house and separated therefrom everything that savors of a remnant. Many an odd bit of silk, or ribbon, or velvet, or lace, etc., may be found which can be made use of for Christmas. Numerous odd pieces of china, bric-a-brac, cut glass, etc. Scores of useful lengths in dress goods—ends of the choicest fabrics—suitable for women's dresses, skirts and waists and children's dresses, at half and nearly half former prices. Wrap, Suit, Linen, Upholstery—in fact, every department in the house presents rare buying opportunities.

With the remnants are several bargain lots of merchandise, some of which were purchased for the occasion; others are goods reduced in prices for one reason or another. A goodly collection of remnants of worthy goods in broad and immediate demand at specially reduced prices—prices that should clear them out quickly and completely.
